

CAMBRIDGE SEMINARS IN THE HISTORY OF CARTOGRAPHY 2010 – 2011

Emmanuel College, St Andrew's Street Cambridge CB2 3AP

Gardner Room

5.30pm

Tuesday 16
November 2010

Emma Perkins
(Department of History & Philosophy of Science, Cambridge University)

'Geography Rectified': a study of a seventeenth-century terrestrial globe and the motives of its makers

Tuesday 22
February 2011

Allison Ksiazkiewicz
(Department of History & Philosophy of Science, Cambridge University)

Colour and problems of visualising space in early nineteenth-century geological maps of Britain

Tuesday 10
May 2011

Nessa Cronin
(National University of Ireland, Galway)

'Number, Weight or Measure': Mapping Colonial Governmentality in William Petty's Political Anatomy of Ireland

All are welcome

For any enquiries, please contact Sarah Bendall at sarah.bendall@emma.cam.ac.uk,
tel. 01223 330476

Refreshments will be available after each seminar

<http://www.lib.cam.ac.uk/deptserv/maps/camsem1011.html>