

Cambridge University Library Map Department Refurbishment

Map Department Temporary Closure: Tuesday 25 to Saturday 29 March 2008 inclusive

Restricted Fetching until 20 March 2008

In July 2007 the Map Department relocated within the University Library building to allow its accommodation (which has been largely untouched since the Library opened in 1934) to be refurbished.

The completion date for this refurbishment work has now been confirmed.

To enable the Map Department to move from its temporary accommodation in the West Room back into its refurbished home it will have to close for a few days at the end of March.

The Timetable is as follows:

The Map Department will be:

CLOSED from Tuesday 25 March to Saturday 29 March inclusive (Note that the Library is closed over Easter weekend, 21 to 24 March inclusive)

and will

REOPEN on Monday 31 March in its newly refurbished accommodation

We apologise for any inconvenience but hope that the vastly improved environment and facilities in the new room will be ample compensation.

Fetching:

Until Thursday 20 March 2008 the Map Department will continue to need 24 hours notice to retrieve some items. Please ring to check availability.
